

TEODORA BRODY

Acclaimed for her extraordinary voice and creative vision, Teodora Brody is an award-winning vocalist whose artistry encompasses jazz, classical, world music, and beyond.

Over the last 25 years, Teodora has forged a singular path through the international jazz scene, collaborating with legendary artists including Stanley Jordan and the late Johnny Răducanu, appearing at prestigious venues from Montreux, Lugano, and Marciac Festivals to New York City's Iridium Club, and pioneering the fusion of jazz with her native Romania's improvisatory folk singing tradition Doina.

In recent years Teodora's intrepid musical imagination has taken her into new territory, exploring classical music from an entirely fresh perspective, with original vocal renditions of masterpieces by the likes of Beethoven, Bach, Enescu, and Bartók. Following acclaimed performances at George Enescu Festival in 2019 and 2021, Teodora returned to the Romanian Athenaeum in 2023, joining forces with the Manchester Camerata. Teodora's latest album Rhapsody, recorded with the world-renowned London Symphony Orchestra, presents a thrilling journey into the classical repertoire.

In 2024 Teodora tours to the USA and Europe, with exciting inter-disciplinary collaborations in a variety of formats, from symphony orchestra to ensemble to her own quartet of vocals, guitar, cello and Brazilian percussion, including performances at Carnegie Hall, Kennedy Center and with the London Symphony Orchestra.
